

NEW 1946 MODEL CHEVROLET

The Stylemaster Sport Sedan

The new 1946 model Chevrolet, shown above, is outstanding not only for styling design, but for quality in materials and construction, advanced engineering, proved performance, economy and dependability.

Every line and contour emphasizes the smoothness and form of the vehicle from front to rear. The new, distinctive radiator grille, shown at the right, presents an expanse of gleaming chrome-plated horizontal bars, framed within a low-arched molding. A model of classic simplicity, it tends to emphasize width as well as loveliness.

PRESCOTT-MCKINNON

WEDDING SOLEMNIZED AT HOME CEREMONY

Simplicity and beauty, as well as unusual interest marked the marriage of Miss Mary Elba Prescott, of Elba, to Phillip D. McKinnon, of New Brockton. The ceremony was solemnized on Sunday afternoon, November 4, at five o'clock at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Mayo Prescott, and Mrs. Prescott. Rev. William M. Sproule, pastor of the Methodist Church, officiated. The ceremony was a double ring service in the presence of the immediate families.

A floral setting was provided and radiance was from burning tapers. An altar was improvised before the mantel in the living room with banking of ferns, palms and Southern smilax, interspersed with tall white tapers in a graceful basket. A making background for standard baskets of massive clusters of white asters, and chrysanthemums, combined with gladioli. The mantel was adorned its length with sprays of plumosa and centered with a graceful basket of lilies. Candles were lighted by Ted Prescott, brother of the bride.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Arden Bradley and her selections were: "Suburban Serenade," "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," "Traumerei." "Suburban Serenade" was played during candle lighting. The wedding march from Lohengrin was used as processional and the ceremony melody was "Meditation."

Miss Jean Davis, of Bay Minette, niece of the bride, was maid of honor and only attendant. She was dressed in a gold crepe costume with trimmings of brown. Her corsage was of yellow roses. Robert Stenbridge, of Dothan, cousin of the groom, served as best man.

The bride entered with her brother, Mayo Prescott, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore an attractive model of brown crepe tulle, with matching accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of Talisman roses and plumosa.

Following the marriage service Mr. and Mrs. Prescott were hosts at an informal reception. Mrs. Gordon Prescott, mother of the bride, was attended in Navy blue crepe, with accents of white, and corsage of white roses. Mrs. Mayo Prescott was dressed in white crepe. Her flowers were pink roses.

In the dining room flower arrangements followed the green and white bride theme. The bride's table was spread with lace and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, in all white decoration, embossed with spun sugar lilies and roses, and crowned with a replica of a bride and groom. At spaced intervals on the table were silver candelabra burning waxen tapers. Linking the ornate decorations were tracers of daisies and delicate fern, showered with yellow satin ribbons. Miss Ellare Davis of Bay Minette and Miss Thelma Hall served coffee, cake and salted nuts.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon left for a brief wedding trip to points on the Florida coast. The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Gordon M. Prescott and the late Mr. Prescott. She was graduated from Elba High school and is now a student at Teachers College in Troy and now holds a responsible position at Camp Rucker. The bride and groom will reside in New Brockton.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Percy Prescott and daughters, Misses Jean and Ellare Davis, of Bay Minette; Mrs. Hugh Prescott and daughter, Elba Grace, of Albany, Ga.; Mrs. W. G. Stenbridge and Robert Stenbridge, of Dothan; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. West, of Opp.

CHRISTIANS WORKING TOGETHER IN THE COMMUNITY

LESSON TEXT: John 17:20-23; Acts 15:22-29.

UNITY WITHIN THE CHURCH IS GOD'S plan and purpose, but that does not mean that some man-made plans for unity are either scriptural or desirable. There is much pressure being exerted now to unite the Church on the basis of a vast ecumenical organization, quite apart from any doctrinal or spiritual unity.

Such unity was not in our Lord's mind. He wants spiritual unity, and in such fellowship the Church will find its only real bond of unity and action.

I. Unity in Spirit (John 17:20-23). Here we enter the veritable holy of holies of Scripture. Facing the time of His departure and death, the Lord prayed for those who believed, or would believe (v. 20) on Him.

What was His prayer? That they should be one with the Father, with Him, and with one another. This had to be accomplished while they remained in this wicked world (see John 17:13-16). How? By the cleansing and sanctifying work of the truth.

The Word of God—the Bible—is the instrument used by the Holy Spirit in this work of sanctification. Small wonder that there is little holiness and spiritual unity when the Word has so little opportunity to touch and to cleanse. Reader, do you study God's Word?

Such separation to God will result in real spiritual unity between those of all denominations and creeds. It is not some artificial thing to be put on from the outside. It comes from the heart of man and reaches out into his life and into the lives of others.

II. Unity in Action (Acts 15:22-29). Satan tried to thwart the missionary efforts of the Church at the very outset by starting a doctrinal controversy.

Although the first council at Jerusalem (Acts 15) had decided that "to the Gentiles also hath God granted repentance unto life," the question did not stay settled, for there were persistent Judaizing teachers who now contended that even though the Gentiles could be saved, they had to come into the church by way of Judaism and first fulfill the Jewish rite of circumcision.

The story of how this vital and fundamental question came up is found in the early verses of Acts 15. The entire future of the gospel ministry was in a sense dependent on the solution of this problem. Christianity is the only religious faith in the world that presents justification by grace as the way of redemption; all others follow (more or less) the path of salvation by works.

The question now was: Shall works of the law be mingled with grace? Can Jesus Christ alone save men, or is salvation through Jesus Christ plus something else?

How was such a serious question to be settled? Should argument and strife be permitted to go on until the stronger party prevailed? Peter's judgment indicated the desirability of a Christian method of settlement.

The final decision of the council is not only by Paul and Barnabas, but also by a committee from Jerusalem, a gracious gesture of fellowship.

As a matter of record (a wise procedure in such a case), a letter was sent which, after addressing the Gentiles as "brethren," reviewed the history of the matter and then, without mentioning circumcision at all, put upon the Gentiles "no greater burden than the necessary things."

And what were those? Those things which relate to purity of life as those who were enjoying Christian liberty. The law of Moses need not be kept as a ground of salvation. They were saved by grace. But grace can never be the cloak of careless living, nor can liberty in Christ be interpreted as license to live in sin. We are set free in Christ, not that we may sin, but that we may "go and sin no more."

III. Unity in Doctrine (Acts 15:28, 29).

In non-essentials we should exercise toward other believers the greatest love and consideration. Men have a right to differences of opinion, and must follow the dictates of their own consciences. Let not be betrayed into controversy on such matters.

There are certain foundation doctrines which must be held if a church is to be Christian; concerning these we stand together. There is a faith for which we are earnestly "contending" (Jude 3). We are never, even on the grounds of supposed courtesy, to give aid and comfort to false teachers (II John 9-11). Gladly, loyally, but definitely the Christian Church must stand true to its doctrinal convictions, standing united against an unbelieving world, and if need be, an unbelieving religious world.

The South Welcomes Them.

THE postwar readjustment period will bring new blood to the South. Many young men from other sections who received their training in southern camps will return and make their permanent homes in the South.

They have discovered the South. They were charmed by the South's congenial climate and the quiet, easy manners of its people. They saw with their own eyes fertile lands that will produce a variety of year-round crops. They saw in the pasture lands, which provide green grazing two-thirds of the year, wonderful dairying possibilities.

They were impressed by the fact that egg production and poultry raising are at the peak in midwinter when these products of the farm are at the lowest ebb in the colder climates.

golden harvest from the egg and poultry industry, is 3,000 miles from the big markets of the east, while the average distance from the South to these markets is less than a thousand miles. Quick transportation will put fresh vegetables on eastern dinner tables 24 hours after the vegetables are gathered.

Every acre of fertile land in the South is an inexhaustible diamond mine, but the diamonds are in the form of rich sub-soils which will produce a variety of crops twelve months in the year.

Today the South is the brightest and most promising section of the nation. In an economic sense, the South has turned its face away from the past and is viewing the future with hope and confidence.

The South will welcome these young men who have the vision to recognize and appreciate its possibilities. * * *
